

Henry is a founder of blueprint, Swire Properties' tech focused accelerator and co-working space in Taikoo Place. He joined Swire's Management Trainee Programme in 2010 and has worked in the Retail, Office and Investment departments within Swire Properties in Beijing and Hong Kong. Prior to Swire, Henry worked in London for the China-Britain Business Council helping British SMEs enter the Chinese market. Within blueprint he was responsible for the operational management and ongoing development of the business. Henry is now Head of Swire Properties' Digital Team focusing on enhancing digital communication across the business and creating more digitally immersive experiences in SPL's retail malls.

Originally from London, Henry graduated from Nottingham University with a 1st class degree in History and Contemporary Chinese Studies. He has studied Mandarin for almost 9 years and can speak, read and write. In 2015, he received an MSc in Real Estate Finance and has been granted membership of the RICS.