

Ian Milne,
Senior Director, Atkins

Ian has been practicing architecture globally for 25 years spanning through Europe, Middle East and Asia/pacific. During the last decade, Ian has led competition winning design teams at prestige firms such as KPF and RMJM, and is presently design director for Atkins Architecture in Hong Kong. Ian has been working closely with the clients and our team designers for many years, embracing cultures and places in his designs.