

Stuart Mercier
Vice President, Brookfield Property Group

Stuart is a Vice President of Brookfield Property Group which oversees approximately US$110bn of real estate investments on behalf of Brookfield and its institutional partners. Over the course of his career, Stuart has been involved in a broad range of transactions spanning multiple asset classes and investment structures. Prior to joining Brookfield, he was a member of the global investment and asset management team at one of Canada's largest pension funds. Stuart received a Bachelor of Arts from Bishop's University in Canada and an MBA in Finance from the University of Hong Kong and London Business School.