

Teo Wee Hwee
Partner, Real Estate Tax Leader, Fund Structuring & International Tax
PwC

Wee Hwee graduated from the Nanyang Technological University with an Honours degree in Accountancy and has been with PwC for about 18 years. He currently heads up the real estate tax practice in PwC Singapore and focuses on fund structuring, REIT and tax minimisation strategies for real estate and infrastructure investments across Asia Pacific. He is also a Accredited Tax Advisor, the highest level of qualification issued by the Singapore Institute of Accredited Tax Professionals.

Wee Hwee has assisted many Singapore and foreign investors to structure their Singapore real estate investments (both asset and share deals) in a tax efficient manner across various asset classes, ranging from hotels, office, retail mall, residential to dormitories. Apart from Singapore, he has also extensive experience in advising acquisitions in Australia, India, Japan, Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, Indonesia, China, Myanmar, United States, United Kingdom, etc. His current portfolio consists mainly of real estate funds, real estate developers, family office, infrastructure fund, private equity funds, and REITs.

Wee Hwee liaises and meets up frequently with the Monetary Authority of Singapore to resolve tax issues for clients and incentive applications. Wee Hwee has also been working closely with the Singapore Exchange to promote REIT and Business Trust listings in Singapore, having recently embarked on a few road shows to Tokyo, Seoul, Mumbai, Sydney, Melbourne and Hong Kong.

Further, Wee Hwee actively participates as a presenter for workshops organised by the Asia Pacific Real Estate Association (APREA) and Real Estate Development Association of Singapore. He is also an instructor for the Certificate of Real Estate Investment Finance (CREIF), a course conducted by APREA and NUS Graduate Certificate in Real Estate conducted by the National University of Singapore.
