

Warren Bishop

Chief Executive Officer
Raffles Quay Asset Management

Warren Bishop is the Chief Executive Officer of Raffles Quay Asset Management (RQAM) Pte Ltd, which manages two of Singapore's premium developments – Marina Bay Financial Centre (MBFC) and One Raffles Quay (ORQ). The two developments account for a combined 4.5 million square feet of office and retail space, the largest collective Grade A office space in Singapore.

Mr Bishop is responsible for spearheading RQAM's overall strategies in managing the world-class office, residential and retail facilities of Marina Bay Financial Centre (MBFC) and One Raffles Quay (ORQ). This includes the commercial leasing of the office towers, sales of Marina Bay Suites (MBS), as well as retail leasing and mall management of Marina Bay Link Mall (MBLM).

RQAM was established in 2001 to manage and market projects jointly developed by Cheung Kong (Holdings) Limited, Hongkong Land and Keppel Land Limited – three of Asia's most experienced property developers.

Mr Bishop has 20 years of experience in marketing, business development and general management in various units of the Jardine Matheson Group in Greater China. Before joining RQAM in 2012, he was the Chief Executive Officer of Tradeport Hong Kong Limited, one of Hong Kong's premier logistics centres based in Hong Kong International Airport.

Mr Bishop also served at Jardine Matheson & Co as the Director of Corporate Development at Hong Kong Air Cargo Terminals Ltd (HACTL) and at Jardine Engineering Corporation, where he was responsible for the strategic development of the business in Hong Kong and China. During this time he was also Managing Director of Hong Kong Air Cargo Industry Services Limited, the wholly-owned subsidiary of HACTL, overseeing its fast growing range of logistics support solutions.

Mr Bishop holds a Bachelor of Arts in Modern Chinese Studies from The University of Leeds and an MBA from IMD in Lausanne.
