

Andrew Heithersay is a Managing Director, Partner and Investment Committee Member of SC Capital Partners Group, with investment responsibilities across Asia-Pacific.

Prior to joining SC Capital Partners in 2013, Mr. Heithersay held senior leadership positions with LaSalle Investment Management throughout his 20-year service with the Group. He was one of three founding members of LaSalle's Asia-Pacific business and, most recently, International Director and Head of Acquisitions, Asia-Pacific (ex Japan). Earlier roles included Director of JLL Hotel's valuation and advisory division in Sydney and Jakarta, followed by Director of Sandalwood Hotel Investment Company (a joint venture between LaSalle & Host Marriott Corporation).

Andrew earned an MBA from Macquarie University Graduate School of Management, a Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investment from the Securities Institute of Australia and a Bachelor of Business in Property from the University of South Australia. He is also a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Andrew was based in Asia from 1997 and relocated to Australia in May 2021.