

ULI Philippines Davao Study Tour

7 – 9 November 2018

Davao City is one of the major metropolitan areas in the Philippines, serving as the center of commerce, trade, tourism, investments, and finance in the south. Its dynamic economy, favorable business environment, responsive local government, and high quality of life make the city a preferred destination for both investment and leisure. Davao Region has the 5th biggest economy in the country and the second fastest growing economy next to Cordillera Autonomous Region.

Key focus areas of the tour:

- Commercial and office opportunities in Davao Region and City
- Understanding the Davao and Mindanao consumer
- Emerging townships and mixed-use developments in the Davao Region
- The Future of Investing in Davao

Panelist speakers and tour guides will come from Davao developers, local government representatives and international architects. Join us in this first ever ULI Study Tour in Davao.
